ARMY OFFICERS GREATLY PLEASED WITH THIS PART OF INDIANA

Major Tillson in Command of Troops Here Today
Likes Hoosiers.

Battalion of Regular Infantry
Arrives Here on March to Fort Ben. Harrison.

The business district of the city this morning was ablaze with flags and bunting, greeting the soldiers from Ft. Thomas, Ky., who arrived here from Andersonville, and who are in camp this evening on the commons west of the L. E. & W. depot. A large crowd of people gathered to see the soldiers as they came through town.

A few soldiers wearing khaki trousers, light brown leggings, blue shirts and the regulation campaign hats and carrying tents, haversacks, canteens, cartridge belts and guns, came straggling into the city from the south at 10:40 in command of a sergeant and accompanied by a bugler on horse back. This was the advance guard.

About ten minutes later Companies I, K, L, & N., comprising the Third Battalion, Fourth Regular Infantry in command of Major John C. F. Tillson, came into the city, from the south, marching in loose order, and followed by seven commissary and ammunition wagons, and two ambulances, each drawn by four horses or mules. A guard sat with the driver of each wagon and a guard brought up the rear.

The troops went north on Main street, west on Second, northwest on Buena Vista avenue, and west on Third street to the camp ground, followed by a large crowd of curious and excited on-lookers. The soldiers were very wet from perspiration, covered in dust and appeared very tired.

It was but ten minutes until the camp was laid off and pickets placed on all four sides. The men in each company joined hands, stretching in a long line and a tent was marked for a position in front of every other man. Each man carried half a tent and the two halves were joined, the little poles were joined and it was but a short time until the field was dotted with tents. A gang of soldiers was busy erecting the eleven officers' tents on the south side of the ground, while another unloaded the cook tents, furnaces and all the commissary paraphernalia from the wagons.

The camp was laid off into seven streets, one of officers' tents, another of the advance guard, one for the band and hospital, and four for the infantry companies.

By the time the tents were up the company cooks had the furnaces going and the smell of frying meat, boiled cabbage and beans and other articles pervaded the atmosphere.

The mules and horses attached to the various wagons were unhitched and watered. The officers' horses were unsaddled and cared for in some instances by negro "flukes," or boys who are traveling with the troops for such purposes. All the horses and mules were staked out to graze. Shortly before 12 o'clock, a bugler sounded the feed call and the animals were fed the hay and grain.

By 11:30 everything was in order at the camp and the soldiers washed and cleaned up a bit. The guns, which had previously been stracked in front of the tents were taken down and cleaned. All other equipment was also placed in proper order.

The noonday mess was partaken of at 12:30 after which the soldiers were allowed to come up town. There were no drills this afternoon, nor will there be this evening beyond roll call at 9 o'clock tonight. Taps will sound at 10 o'clock. At that time every soldier must be in bed.

A large number of people visited the camp today and for the first time got a glimpse of a soldier's life while on the march. Many of the soldiers were too tired to come up town this afternoon. These men slept in the shelter of their tents.

All of the tents, with the exception of those in the streets occupied by the guard and the officers face the east. On three sides of each tent is a trench made for the purpose of carrying water from rains around the tent. Just before the command left Ft. Thomas, heavy new tan shoes were distributed among the men. These have been the cause of many sore feet since the march began.

When the troops first came in this morning, George Payne, the eccentric old negro, who cares for many of the offices down town, seized a flag and marched along with them.

Major John C. F. Tillson said this morning that there are 235 officers and men in the command. The troops camped over night on the Lafore farm, near Andersonville. They broke camp at 6:30 this morning.

Major Tillson considers that the command reached this city in remarkably good time. It marched an average of three miles per hour.

"We break camp each day at 6:30 a. m.," Major Tillson said when visited by the correspondent at his tent, "and march about fifty minutes and halt ten minutes in order to rest the men and give them water. Of course we cannot regulate this part of it by the clock, for sometimes we do not always reach the shade or strike water at the proper time, but this morning we were able to carry out the program almost to the minute."

"Do you know that it is a matter of surprise to us soldiers the way the citizens turn out in order to get a glimpse of the soldiers. I suppose it is because they have never seen troops marching overland as in the Philippines and fully equipped for a fight. We are marching on this trip just as we would if we were in the field. Nearly all of the men in the command have seen field service. We have not twelve men with us who have not had from three to six years service."

"The people have been very kind to us on the march. You have nice people in this part of the State and the country is beautiful. It reminds me of the rolling country in the Blue grass State where we are stationed, and the people are very accommodating and sociable. In no instance where we have halted have we been refused accommodations. The farmers have allowed the men to lie about their lawns in the shade, and saw to it that the men had plenty of water. In some instances they have even given us milk."

Major Tillson stated that his command would be in camp at Ft. Thomas until Oct. 1st. When asked as to whether or not the troops would return by way of Rushville, he said: "I don't know. I'm sure I would like to do so and I know the men would also, for the roads are excellent and the people are so accommodating."

Like a brave and true soldier, Major Tillson is very modest whenever his own exploits are mentioned. He is a tall and straight man of commanding appearance, is smooth shaven, has gray eyes that flash like steel. His hair is streaked with gray. His bearing shows him to be very much a soldier, yet his voice betrays that he is one of the kindest of men.

While he was conversing with the correspondent, three officers approached the major's tent at various times and saluted. One Lieutenant reported that two tents on one company street were not in line. Major Tillson promptly ordered them struck and set in line. The regimental surgeon reported that none of the men were out on account of sickness, and that none suffered from the heat this morning during the march. None even asked for the ambulance, he said. Major Tillson was greatly pleased at the report. The other officer was the Chaplain, who was granted permission to go up town.

Major Tillson has been in the army 32 years. At the time of the march of the powers on Peking, China, he says, he was a captain in the Fourteenth Infantry. In speaking of service as provost marshal at Peking, Major Tillson would say that he had to control a quarter million unruly Chinese. "I assure you it was a very interesting job," he said.

Major Tillson has been with the Fourth Infantry for four years. He first served in the Philippines with the Fourteenth Infantry.

Major Tillson says that the march from Ft. Thomas has been an uneventful one except for the crowds that have gathered to see the troops. Two privates became intoxicated during the stay at Brookville. They were promptly sent back to the guard house at Ft. Thomas. There has been some sickness on the march, principally in the shape of heat prostrations, but very little to speak of.

The command will leave Rushville at 6:30 tomorrow morning for Blue River park, west of Morristown, where it will camp until Saturday morning.

The officers, besides Major Tillson, (whose home is at Elmira, N. Y.) who are with the Third Battalion are: Major J. W. Wakeman, surgeon; Capt. M. S. Jarvis, Capt. J. S. Switzer, adjutant, Capt. J. H. Hughes, commissary, Capt. Benj. Simmons, Capt. W. F. Nesbit, 1st Lt. Chas. Abel, 2d Lt. Ralph Drury, 9th Infantry, 2d Lt. John Scott, 2d Lt. Benjamin Barley and Chaplain J. L. Hunter.

Col. Macklin, who commands the entire Fourth Regiment, is an Indiana man, who first enlisted in the army at Richmond during the Civil war. He is not with the Third Battalion, however. Col. Macklin was but recently promoted from Lieutenant Colonel of the Third Infantry to Colonel of the Fourth. Col. Macklin has one son in the army and another in the navy.

Every man in Major Tillson's command, is saying unprintable things about the new army shoe. At the end of each day's march Major Tillson orders a general foot-bathing maneuver, in which all the men gladly take part. It has the effect of soothing the sore feet. The men say they could stand the soreness of foot if they had a little Hoosier chicken as liniment.

"They told us over at Cincinnati that when we hit Indiana we'd get nothing but fried chicken," said one of the soldiers today. "Now, if I've had a bite of chicken in Indiana I hope to choke to death on the bone. They all tell us that they're sorry we can't stay longer so they could feed us. But nary a feed. They want us to drill for them, too. Not us. Not without chicken. Now, most of us have been through Georgia, and I want to say right here that down there they stack tables full of chicken and pie and place them in the middle of the street so we can grab it as we go by."

HAIL STORM DOES DAMAGES

The Corn on Several Farms
Badly Injured - Chickens Killed.

A cloud burst and heavy hail storm did considerable damage to the corn on the farms of W. A. Posey, W. T. Powell, James Arthur, Frank Walton, W. A. Alexander and Mrs. Anna Caldwell, west of this city, Wednesday evening. On most of these places the corn was riddled by the hail and the blades stripped from the stalk. The hail storm lasted about twenty minutes and the hail stones were so large that they killed many small chickens.

FIRE STARTED BY LIGHTNING

Barn on the Claire Farm Near Arlington is Damaged.

During the storm about 5 o'clock Wednesday evening lightning struck the barn on the old George Offutt farm in Posey township, one-half mile from Arlington, and set it afire. The farm belongs to Mrs. Claire, and is occupied by Harrison Wertz. The barn was destroyed together with a lot of hay and grain. All the live stock was saved. The loss is estimated at $1200.

MR. TAGGART HAS DECLINED

Sinclair Showed Equal Reserve, Both Acting on Advice of Their Lawyers.

Owner of Big Watering Place Hotel Refused to be Placed on Oath Before the Auditor.

Paoli, Ind., July 12.—Mr. Taggart balked when the state made an effort to place him, as president of the French Lick Hotel company, under oath and to question him concerning the ownership of the hotel company and the Monte Carlo connected with it, which was raided by the state last week.

The state wished to get into the leases of the business and other matters pertaining to gambling. John Kern, Alonzo G. Smith and Bernard Korbly, Taggart's attorneys, took the ground that the examination authorized by the state does not constitute the examining board as a court to administer the oaths and examine witnesses, and Taggart stood on this advice. The state, defeated in its move to probe, preliminary to the trial on the quo warranto proceedings which will begin here tomorrow, succeeded, however, in placing Taggart on record as refusing to testify on oath.

The examination conducted by State Auditor Bigler is, however, proving productive of a great deal of information, which the state will use at the trial. The state will be able to examine Taggart, Sinclair and also other witnesses, when they are placed on the stand.

Taggart was subjected to considerable questioning by Attorney General Miller, notwithstanding his refusal to be placed under oath. He made the statement that the contract of the hotel company with "Al" Brown for the casino privileges two or three years ago was $15,000 a year. After Brown's lease was canceled a lease was made with Ed Ballard and the state is now making an effort to get hold of that lease or its provisions. The gambling privileges evidently had become very valuable during Brown's administration, and it is said that the lease to Ed Ballard provided for the payment of $50,000 to the hotel company. Lee W. Sinclair, president of the West Baden Hotel company, who also was called on, objected to being placed under oath and examined until after he had conferred with his attorneys. The state's investigation of the books, records and affairs of the two companies is being conducted behind closed doors. It is learned, however, that there is the very strongest kind of circumstantial evidence that Ed Ballard was the real lessee of at least the West Baden casino, though "he" lease was held in the name of Thomas G. Derry. The state is guarding the information that it is gaining, from its investigation, but State Auditor Bigler and Attorney General Miller do not conceal the fact that they are greatly pleased with the information that is being dug out of the books and records by the experts who are at work.

POPULAR YOUNG LADY INJURED

Miss Mary Amos Painfully Bruised and Cut in Fall from Pony Cart.

Miss Mary Amos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Amos, of North Perkins street, sustained painful, but not serious injuries about 7 o'clock last night in a fall from her pony cart, while driving on Main street in front of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Havens.

One of the wheels to the cart came off and threw Miss Amos out. The pony started to run and the young lady who pluckily held to the lines, was dragged for a short distance. She was badly cut and bruised about the face, shoulders, breast and arms. She was taken home by R. J. Wilson and is improving nicely.

RURAL BOXES

Postmaster General Issues an Order Allowing Patrons to Make Their Own.

Postmaster-General Cortelyou has issued an order to go into effect August 1st, rescinding the regulation under which patrons of rural free mail routes are compelled to purchase boxes from one of the two listed manufacturers who have put on the market three hundred different styles of boxes, approved by the department, costing from fifty cents to four dollars each.

Patrons of rural routes will be permitted to construct their own boxes, provided that in doing so they conform to the requirements of the department as to size, durability, safety and protection from the inclemencies of the weather.

SYNDICATE IS AFTER I. & C.

I. C. & Eastern Traction
Company Said to Desire
Henry's Line.

Directors of New Corporation
Return From Closing a Big Deal.

A dispatch from Cincinnati says: "The delegation of directors of the Indiana, Columbus & Eastern Traction company is home from Philadelphia, where all of last week was spent in arranging the financial details for the floating of many millions of bonds of the new company."

In addition to Mr. Schoepf were Vice President Benton Foraker and John C. Gallagher and Mr. Fitzgerald. The later represented the preliminary outside membership on the board and it is expected that they will eventually be succeeded by the representatives of their principals.

The big company, with its $24,000,000 of capitalization, will only include the recently acquired properties of the Widener-Dolan-Schoepf interests in the central part of Ohio.

The latest story out is that the traction syndicate is already figuring on acquiring the Toledo & Western railway and the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company, which likewise went into the hands of the Indiana courts the same date.

The Indianapolis & Cincinnati railway is known as the Henry line and operates under the single phase electric system. The road operates to Shelbyville and Rushville with extensions to Greensburg and Connersville almost complete.

Porto Ricans Want Citizenship.

San Juan, P. R., July 12.—The lower house of the insular legislature adopted a resolution asking Secretary Root to use his office on behalf of Porto Rican citizenship and an elective insular senate. The committee of the house which was unable to see Secretary Root prior to his departure left the petition at the governor's palace for delivery to the secretary.

The decrease in the number of hogs slaughtered in Germany last year was so considerable that the heavy imports of cured pork products from Holland, Austria and the United States were not sufficient to maintain a good supply.

TROLLEY LINE MAP CHANGED

Unusually Rapid Growth of Interurban System During Last Six Months.

Three Hundred and Seventy-six Miles of Interurban Road Under Construction.

Within the next few days the American Engineering company will issue a new and revised map of the interurban lines in Indiana. The one issued in January, which was the only correct map of the Indiana lines in existence at that time, would hardly be recognized now by traction men who know how many new lines have been put in service since January.

Of the traction line companies bonded and put under construction, only one, the Wabash & Rochester Traction company, has been abandoned. The evidence of continued interurban growth exhibited is interesting.

In six months, or since the issuance of the January map—222 miles in all—have been put in operation: The Winona road from Warsaw to Goshen; the Toledo & Chicago interurban railroad from Fort Wayne to Garrett, Auburn and Waterloo, in Indiana; the Marion, Bluffton & Eastern Traction company, from Fort Wayne to Bluffton; the Terre Haute Traction and Light company, from Farmersburg to Sullivan; the Evansville & Princeton Traction company from Princeton to Evansville; the Evansville & Mt. Vernon Traction company, from Evansville to Mt. Vernon; the Evansville Suburban and Newburg company from Evansville to Newburg, and from Evansville to Booneville; the Indianapolis & Western, from Indianapolis to Danville, (this line is not yet opened, but will be within a few days); the Muncie & Portland Traction company, from Muncie to Portland; the Winona extension from Warsaw to Peru.

There are 376 miles of road under construction, all but 134 miles of which it is expected will be complete before Jan. 1, 1907. Lines under construction are as follows: Evansville & Esatern Electric Railway company, from Newburg, connecting with Evansville to Rockport; the Indianapolis & Louisville Traction company, from Sellersburg to Seymour; the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company, which will be in operation from Shelbyville to Greensburg and from Rushville to Connersville, the latter part of August; the Fort Wayne & Wabash Valley Traction company, from Logansport and Delphi to Lafayette; the Indianapolis, Crawfordsville & Western Traction company, from Indianapolis to Crawfordsville, to Covington, Ind., and Danville, Ill.; the Indianapolis, New Castle & Toledo company under construction, Indianapolis to New Castle, Maxwell to Greenville, Shirley to Anderson, New Castle to Winchester, and New Castle to Richmond.

CAMPING PARTY GIVES IT UP

Carthage People Unable to do
Any Fishing Stunts so
They Return Home.

Wednesday's New Castle Courier says: "The Carthage camping party consisting of Ed Payne, Frank Burk, H. J. Pressnall and George Hart and their wives, had nothing but fried chicken and beefsteak, with chiggers as a side dish, and became dissatisfied with the fare, and camp was broken Tuesday evening. The recent heavy rains caused the river to almost overflow its banks and fishing for the time being has been spoiled by the high waters. Each member of the party says he had a good time, but all were mighty glad to see 'New Castle on the Blue,' Tuesday night."

BUILT ENTIRELY OF HOOSIER CAPITAL

I. & C. Line Thought to be Only
Road in Indiana Locally Financed.

Wednesday's Indianapolis News says: "The Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company, which is now working on a plan to readjust its finances, is thought to be the only traction line in Indiana that was built entirely with Indiana money. Until after the Rushville line was put into operation, the company did not owe a dollar of bonded indebtedness outside the State. Since then some of the stock has passed into the hands of outside purchasers, but even now the amount of stock owned by persons not residing in Indiana does not exceed $50,000. Of this amount $35,000 is held by Vermont people."

The company did not care to sell its bonds to outside purchasers until after the completion of the Connersville extension. Need of money to complete the extension, however, induced the directors to ask for a receiver for the company, so that money might be raised on the original bonds. There is little doubt but that the receivership will be dissolved without a sale of the property. Charles L. Henry, president and general manager of the road, who was appointed receiver, with instructions from the court to proceed with the extension work, is known as "the father of the interurban industry in Indiana."

It was he who coined the word, "interurban"—a word which is now universally used to designate traction cars running from city to city, but which has not yet found its way into the dictionaries. Mr. Henry built the first traction line in this State."

SUMMER TIME IS WEED TIME

Rushville Crop is Ripe and Cutting Should Be Finished.

There are a number of luxuriant growths of weeds within the city limits which should be given some attention by "the man behind the scythe," or some other "weapon" equally as dangerous. This is the time of year when dog days and rag weeds come on and the hay fever patients begin to sneeze and wheeze and have an awful time. The fact that rag weeds do more towards bringing on an epidemic of hay fever is recognized by reputable physicians and scientists.

Weeds of all kinds are a menace to public health according to the rule and regulations of the State health department and the local health officers are just about ready to open up another fierce campaign on weeds.

Weeds will grow and grow just as long as there is any earth in which they may send their roots. Some of them have attained unusual and phenomenal growths since the last rains. It's a peculiar thing, but weeds will grow faster after a good old-fashioned root soaker than any other kind of plant.

If the weeds could be utilized for something and put to good purpose no doubt their culture could be carried on at a very small cost. Under the present circumstances the burden is the only weed about these parts which can be made up into tonic, but just at present there is no burdock tonic factory here and the supply is dring in the market.

Weeds, weeds everywhere and no weed to be cut. People who own the property on which weeds are growing and who have not already cut them should get busy, but some will say they can get no one to cut weeds, but this can be easily arranged. There are a lot of boys who are experienced weed cutters and can be had for the asking almost and they can cut weed and do the work up in pretty good shape. If you can't hire a man to cut your weeds, get a boy.

The health officers, as above stated are likely to be around and then a whole lot of fur will fly.

HE MEANS BUSINESS

Governor Hanly Tells Railroad Representatives Where to Head In.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 12.—At the session of the state board of tax commissioners today, Governor Hanly continued to hand out a warm line of talk to the representatives of the railroad companies that had failed to answer the questions contained in the blanks sent to them. He made an example of R. R. Metheany, auditor of the Grand Rapids & Indiana road, who was asking for a reduction of from $17,000 to $15,000 a mile. The report filed by his road was incomplete as to earnings and operating expenses. "We have asked you for specific information and you have not furnished it," Governor Hanly said. "We want to know your total operating expenses and what is included in them. But you have overlooked this request or have willfully left the information out of the report. We want it understood that this board means business when it asks for information." Godfrey Jaeger of Cleveland, counsel for the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, asked for a reduction for his road. Jas. H. Muir of Detroit, representing the Grand Trunk system, and H. D. Howe, representing the Indiana, Illinois & Iowa road, the Indiana Harbor & East Chicago Belt railroad, also asked for a reduction. R. O. Hawkins, appearing for the Lake Erie & Western, was willing to let well enough alone and stand by last year's valuation.

A curious feature of the governor's efforts to close up the gambling casinos at French Lick and West Baden is that he may rob the Republican spellbinders of a chance to go after T. Taggart and accuse the Democratic party of being led by a man who is proprietor of the most notorious gambling house in the state. Last winter the governor himself started the ball rolling on that line when he declared that the Democratic party was in no position to "clean house" with Taggart, proprietor of a gambling casino, at its head. He is now about to purge T. Taggart of all the gambling sins that have been laid at his door by breaking up the Monte Carlo that has existed at his French Lick hotel. It will be necessary for the Republican campaign speakers to take a different tack, which they will probably do by praising the governor and declaring that their party is entitled to credit for putting the big gambling resorts out of business. In the meantime, however, they cannot consistently charge that the proprietor of a notorious gambling house is leading the Democratic party, while it is pointed out that the latter may be able to go into the "house cleaning" business with cleaner hands. The movement against the French Lick and West Baden casinos has changed the political situation that much, at least.

Attorney General Miller and Governor Hanly have stated publicly that they understood that Thomas Taggart received $50,000 a year for the lease of casino at French Lick, but it is not thought that they have sufficient evidence to prove it. It is said that the examination of the books was planned with the hope of being able to clinch their statement about the size of Taggart's alleged rake-off. The examination of the hotel company's books revealed that Taggart practically owns the French Lick property. Crawford Fairbanks, the millionaire Terre Haute brewer, L. T. Dickason, a prominent Chicago capitalist, Walter Barnes, manager of the hotel, and A. E. Thomas, secretary of the company are the other stockholders. The examination of the books of the West Baden hotel showed that Sinclair owns 64 per cent of the stock in his own name and two members of his family have a large block of stock.

At Columbus today Congressman Lincoln Dixon of North Vernon was nominated for the second term without opposition by the Democrats at the Fourth district convention. The counties in the district are Johnson, Brown, Bartholomew, Jackson, Jennings, Ripley, Dearborn, Ohio, Switzerland and Jefferson. The district is solidly Democratic. Two years ago Congressman Dixon defeated Anderson Percifield of Nashville, the Republican candidate, by a vote of 23,541 to 21,516.

Looking Into Freight Rates.

St. Louis, July 12.—At the hearing of the government's suit to dissolve the alleged combine of the Terminal railroad association before Special Commissioner Rombauer in the United States appellate court, former Attorney General Crow of Missouri, for the government, began a searching investigation into the methods by which rates on coal are made and maintained by the railroads on the east side of the Mississippi river.

An Ineffectual Duel.

Lima, Peru, July 12.—Senator Zapata, recently minister of the interior, and Senor Villosa, a journalist, fought a duel, exchanging shots without result. They left the dueling ground without being reconciled. Senor Zapata had accused Senor Villosa of insulting him in a newspaper article and resigned from the ministry of the interior to be free to fight the writer.

An Important Announcement.

Bombay, India, July 12.—Dr. Turner, health officer of Bombay, has successfully demonstrated the extraordinary efficiency of crude petroleum as a plague disinfectant. It is believed that his experiments have materially advanced the prospects of the extermination of the plague.

LEGAL LIMITATIONS

Criminal Code Procedure Severely Criticized at State Bar Meeting.

West Baden, Ind., July 12.—The State Bar association, which has drawn distinguished jurists and attorneys from all parts of Indiana to West Baden and French Lick for the two days' annual consideration of legal questions, received some straightforward talk in the opening address by President Charles L. Jewett. Colonel Jewett availed himself of the opportunity to attack what he termed the defects of our "clumsy, halting, hair-splitting, unsentimental criminal code procedure." He made a plea not only for justice for the prisoner at the bar but for the taxpayer who foots the heavy bills caused by the present system, and also for the general public, which has long stood and grown tired of legal technical jockeying in the courts and has lost faith to a certain degree in their efficacy. He called attention to the fact that while radical changes had been made in other directions the criminal code of our courts remains substantially the same as enacted fifty years ago.

He deplored the fact that the public as a rule reads only reports of sensational trials, and that its general conception of all legal procedure is formed from the reports of criminal courts which operate under the antiquated code. He held that the defects in the criminal code, therefore, are largely credited to all legal codes and all practice, and he attributed much of the blame for mob violence and lynch law to the delays and technicalities that are the rule in criminal courts.

"It cannot," he said, "be doubted that much condemnation of our courts arises from observation of the technicalities and delays attendant on criminal trials. * * * As one born in this state, passionately fond of its institutions and proud of its history, I regret that it suffers from dilatory criminal procedure. This state has given only one evidence of substantial improvement in over twenty years, and that—the indeterminate sentence law—indeed, was not intended to reform procedure, but grew out of humanitarian considerations."

Colonel Jewett made a straightforward criticism of the work of the codifying commission created by the legislature, which has just completed its work. Few things of benefit were done by this commission, he said, although it had a wonderful opportunity for making reforms.

Wouldn't Face His Crime.

Elroy, Wis.—N. M. Riggs, under arrest here for the murder of Miss Ellison at Minneapolis, has committed suicide.

Minneapolis, July 12.—Robbery is believed to have been the motive of the brutal murder of Miss Millie Ellison of Ellsworth, Wis., who was attacked while in her room in a local hotel Tuesday. The woman is known to have had over $2,000 on her person, she having cashed a draft for that amount at one of the banks during the day. When she appeared at the bank to cash the order, which was drawn on an institution in her home town, she was accompanied by a man who closely answers the description of a suspect now under arrest at Elroy, Wis., and who was seen to leave her room shortly before the murder was discovered.

Ice-man's Frank Statement.

Kansas City, July 12.—Ex-State Senator W. F. Lyons, president of the Central Ice Company of this city, gave interesting testimony at the ice trust hearing here. After stating that he had started in business in 1900 with a capital of $600, had cleared $45,000 in the following year and that he now owned a plant valued at $400,000, Mr. Lyons said that prices ought to be even higher than they are. He said he was not in the ice business as a philanthropist.

COMBS ORDERED BACK

Uncle Sam's Accredited Peace-maker Finds His Mission Interrupted by a Cable Message.

It Now Seems That Central American Belligerents Have Some More Firecrackers to Set Off.

Washington, July 12.—Hostilities between Salvador and Guatemala have broken out anew on the border between these countries, where peace was supposed to have been established pending a settlement of the trouble between the two countries. Leslie M. Combs, the American minister to

LESLIE COMBS.

Guatemala, who was on his way to the United States to assist in settling the difficulties between Salvador and Guatemala has been ordered back to Guatemala City from Champerico, Guatemala, where he was reached by cable.

Mr. Combs will remain in the Guatemala capital to keep the United States advised concerning the trouble and to protect American interests.

Salvadorean and Guatemalan troops have been massed near the common boundary of the two countries for some time and a serious clash was expected, but a temporary armistice seemed to have been agreed upon and Salvador announced that J. R. Pacus had been named as a special envoy to Washington for the purpose of making representations to the American government concerning Salvador's position. John Jenkins, the American consul general at San Salvador, was to accompany Mr. Pacus to this country.

Salvador's alleged assistance of revolutionists in Guatemala, who were attempting to overthrow Cabrera, caused Guatemala to protest bitterly to the United States and Mexico and resulted in representations to Salvador by these two republics, which indicated that they resented foreign interference in the internal affairs of Guatemala. It was believed at the state department here until today that President Cabrera had put down the revolution and that the row with Salvador would soon be amicably settled.

A Georgia Lynching.

Swainsboro, Ga., July 12.—About a hundred heavily armed men took Ed Pearson, a negro, from Deputy Sheriff Fields, about three miles from this place, carried him to the Canoochen swamp and lynched him. The night before Pearson was found by Misses Maude and Ida Durden hiding under their bed. Screams attracted their father, an aged man, who entered the room with a gun, but was knocked senseless by the negro, who escaped. He was later captured by the deputy and identified.

The President Getting a Rest.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 12.—President Roosevelt is enjoying his first real vacation since his occupancy of the White House. In the week and a half he has administered affairs from Sagamore Hill he has had but two visitors, Sir Joseph Ward and Secretary Taft, and these visits were brief. In conducting the affairs of state by correspondence entirely, the President is required to devote from three to five hours to his mail.

Many Passengers Imperiled.

LaCrosse, Wis., July 12.—Two hundred passengers on the steamer Quincy of the Diamond Joe line at 10:30 o'clock last night narrowly escaped death when the big packet struck a bank in the dark near Trempealeau, Wis., turned half over and then caught fire. Only one drowning is definitely known, that of an infant which was washed from its mother's arms.

Deadly Wreck of Trolley Car.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 12.—A train of two trolley cars, westbound from Lockport on the lines of the International Railway company, ran into an open switch at a siding just east of Martinsville and crashed into a trolley freight motor and a train of seven freight cars. Five passengers were killed and a score injured, several seriously.

MRS. HARTJE LESS TROUBLED

Seems Confident That Handwriting Experts Will Prove Her Case.

Pittsburg, July 12.—The handwriting experts, David N. Carvalho of New York, and Marshall D. Elwell of Chicago, were closeted for several hours with Mrs. Hartje, the defendant in the divorce case, and Thomas Madine, the coachman co-respondent, examining the forty letters alleged to have been written to Madine by Mrs. Hartje. Mrs. Hartje has lost the look of anxiety which was commented on during the trial last week, and seems to be gaining confidence as the examination of the letters by the experts progresses.

In an effort to establish the accuracy of the now famous forty letters, counsel for Mrs. Hartje last evening summoned to their office three bank cashiers to obtain their opinion of the letters because of their knowledge of handwriting in their business. None of the men were acquainted with Mrs. Hartje's handwriting and the forty letters were thrown upon the table before them. They were asked to select those letters that from their experience would appear to be written in a natural hand. In the forty letters were seven that Mrs. Hartje had acknowledged writing. They were letters of a social nature to personal friends, and these were selected by the bank men as to their mind the letters written by Mrs. Hartje, while the remaining were declared forgeries.

Not to be outdone by the defense, the attorneys for Hartje have had the famous letters photographed and have prepared charts three feet in height. Both sides have prepared charts and enlargements of the letters, and they were taken into court when the trial of the case was resumed today.

More letters are promised in the famous case. Attorneys for Augustus Hartje say they have a bundle of letters to be produced in court that will make those previously offered seem commonplace. They refuse to tell where they secured them. John S. Robb, assistant district attorney, now says he will be ready for the hearing in the conspiracy suit against Hartje, John L. Welshons, Hartje's bosom friend, and the negro, Clifford Hoe, on Saturday. In the meantime, Robb says, more arrests will be made of prominent Pittsburgers.

Hints of British Beef Scandals.

Bristol, Eng., July 12.—At the sanitary inspectors' conference here a delegate named Bottomley said if the British public only knew a quarter of what was going on in the slaughterhouses of this country, the Chicago scare would become insignificant by comparison. He knew, he said, of a cow suffering from pulmonary consumption that was sold for $15, killed and eaten.

Wholesale Executions Ordered.

Salonika, July 12.—The trial of thirty-five peasants implicated in the murder of twenty-eight Turks a year ago has ended. Twenty-one were sentenced to death.

Republican "Want Ads" Bring Results

BIG DROPS OCCUR SOMETIMES IN OUR PRICES, BUT NEVER IN THE QUALITY, STYLE OR FINISH OF ANY OF OUR GOODS. DEAR BROTHERS & SISTERS GET THEM WHERE YOU GET THEM RIGHT. BUSTER BROWN.

Do the merchants who advertise all of the time that they will sell you goods "below cost" really mean it? Of course not. How could they and keep it up? It's not arithmetic. But you can understand, can you not, how that at this season of the year when summer business is nearly over that a legitimate store may wish to close out many lines they have bought too many of. Many merchants buy job lots and poorly made goods to spring on the people at this time of the year but look out for these fake sales. We would rather do without business than to give our patrons poor stuff. We are here to stay. So even at prices we confess are reduced and let us out about even we have left lots of "clothes of quality" at these prices: Suits $5.00 to $15.00, Pants $1.00 to $5.00.

BY THE WAYSIDE

Connersville News: "Some years ago, while I was residing at Rushville," remarked a well known attorney, "I was called to defend a pretty defender in a justice's court. The defendant had demanded a jury trial, and we put in a half a day trying to get a jury only to find at the end of that time that we had one lone juror in the jury box."

"Well, I'm willing to try the case with one juror," said the attorney for the prosecution.

"So am I," I declared.

"And we proceeded with the trial. The arguments were howlingly funny for the reason that the attorney for the prosecution persisted in addressing the lone juror as 'gentlemen of the jury,' and I succeeded in swelling the jury with a feeling of pride and satisfaction by some timely comment on the self-evident honesty, intelligence and integrity of the body. I really thought that I had the lone juror won. Then the constable led him out to the jury-room, where he might deliberate with himself. In twenty minutes the jury returned with the announcement that no agreement could be reached."

"What?" thundered the justice of the peace, "you get back there and reach a verdict."

"The jury was out twenty minutes more."

"The jury disagrees," was the announcement when the court asked the lone juror if he had arrived at a verdict. "You see, it's just like this," he went on to explain. When I consider the testimony of one side I want to find the defendant guilty, and when I consider the testimony of the other witnesses I want to discharge him. I can't agree with myself."

"And the jury was discharged."
